Schedule 2

During the period from April 1, 1978 through September 30, 1978, Ruder & Finn was engaged in the following activities on behalf of the Government of El Salvador:

The majority of Ruder & Finn's effort was directed towards the planning and preparation of materials for a Salvadorian governmental mission to Spain and France. In Washington we introduced Salvadorian officials to a few members of the press and to members of the Congressional staff whose committees have special interest in international affairs.

We also compiled mailing lists of international trade associations to whom El Salvadorian government will mail their economic reports, monitored coffee and sugar legislation which is of interest to the El Salvadorian government, planned itinerary for El Salvador's Press Secretary's visit to Washington and made appointments for the Ambassador to meet with members of Congress to discuss economic problems in El Salvador.
